

ELLA BAKER

Who she was.

Ella Josephine Baker was an African-American civil rights and human right activist. Born on December 13, 1903 and died December 13, 1986.

Mrs. Baker was highly respected for her work and abilities in organizing communities and civil right projects, She ran the organization's first project.

Baker spent nearly half a century raising the political Conscious of American.

In the late 1950s she helped create SCLC to fight racism, in her role as executive director. Baker supported the ideas of a student run organization and helped young people to found SNCC.

Baker was the premiere behind-the-scenes organizer, co founder of the SCLC headed by Martin Luther King Jr.